Pledge Off Pounds To Raise Money For SIDS

In the December issue of the Prydonian Renegade (the newsletter of the Prydonians of Prynceton) they ran a picture of Colin Baker showing him before and after he lost fifty pounds on a challenge from The Sun, a British newspaper that once labeled him "Doctor Huge." For each pound Colin lost, The donated 100 to researching SIDS (sudden infant death syndrome). Colin and his wife Marion lost their first child to SIDS, and SIDS is now his pet charity.

The Prydonians thought it would be nice for their club to show its support of Colin by having their own fund drive with all the money going to the American SIDS organization. Many members of the UnEarthly Children feel the same way, therefore "Pledge off Pounds" will be a cross-club undertaking.

The challenge is called "Pledge off Pounds" (PoP). The idea is to pick one of the seven volunteers--Colin's 7!--and pledge X amount of money per pound lost by your chosen volunteer. It officially started February 1 and ends May 31. This will the Prydonians collect all the pledged money by June 17.

"Colin's 7" are Cathy Boudreau, Tom Beck, Julie Florez, Cindy Henry, Pat Betz (your Dictator), Karlene Hartel, and Dorothy Case, who thought up the idea.

Members can pledge in several ways:

1. X amount per pound lost per volunteer (e.g., 10¢/lb lost by Pat).
2. The same as number 1, only to a stated total limit (e.g., $2 no matter how much Pat loses).
3. A straight donation, regardless of how musch the volunteer loses (e.g., $5, even if Pat doesn't manage to lose any weight).

You are allowed to have more than one volunteer (in other words you can pledge your money on more than one volunteer).

The contact person is Dorothy Case, 250 Morris Avenue, Trenton, NJ 08611 (609-392-6204). All the money raised will go to the New Jersey Chapter of the National Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Foundation.

RENEWAL INCREASE

Due to the increase in the postage rate the UnEarthly Children find it necessary to increase Club members renewal fee by one dollar. As of April 30, 1988 the UnEarthly Children club dues will be $6 for new members and $6 to renew your membership with the club.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Volunteers are needed to man the Gambit Con Suite. We (the UEC, Prydonians of Prynceton and the Cygnus Alphans) the local area clubs have offered our services to run the con suite for Gambit. We are looking for people to work in at least 1 hour shifts. To volunteer please call Pat Betz 215-364-1314.

PARTY ALERT!

Yes, its that time of year again to celibrate the birth of the UnEarthly Children. You are cordially invited to the fourth annual UnEarthly Children Birthday Party which is to be held on Saturday, June 18, 1988, from 1pm to whenever. The party will helded at the home Liz Berg (POM of June) at 1921 Park Ave., Bensalem, PA. Some of the things planned thus far are games (eg. softball, Trivial Pursuit, volleyball, etc.), have contests. This year we will have the WHIPPED-CREAM-IN-THE-FACE AUCTION, yes, you can hit your favorite dictator in face with whipped cream. Like last year we are asking that you bring a food contributions of some sort, plus burgers or filet mignon for yourself (there will be a grill available). Please call to let us know that you are coming and what you are contributing. You can call Pat Betz at 215-364-1314, Dave Smith 609-883-6407. Directions to follow in next month's newsletter.

A THANK YOU FROM DECIMA PRODUCTIONS, INC.

Decima Productions, the people who ran DSV One, is sending a contribution of $250 to WHYY. The contribution will be sent in the names of the Prydonians of Prynceton, the UnEarthly Children, the Cygnus Alphans, the Jersey Jaggaroth and DSV One. It is Decima Productions way of saying thank you to all of the clubs who volunteered to help out at DSV ONE. Decima plans to request, in lieu of other premiums, that a membership be designated in the name of a fan from each club who could not otherwise afford a membership.

At the May meeting we will draw a name of one of our members, who do not belong to WHYY, and that lucky member will win a free membership to WHYY for one year (hopefully, please realize that Decima is making a request and WHYY may or may not decide to honor this request).

Blakes Doubles

ISSUE #1 of BLAKE'S DOUBLES contains two long 5th-season stories:

THE FLOTSAM CHRONICLES by Phyllis Milby and Valarie Dickinson. Gauda Prime was a fearsome planet as far as Vila was concerned, and when even the trees (!) turned against him, he knew that it was long past time to leave. But where to go following the monumental disaster that had befallen the Scorpio's crew there on G.P.? The salvage ship Delta Horizon provides the perfect answer when he and Tarrant are forced to stowaway... and learn that the ship's captain is in desperate need of help. Never one to turn away from someone in need (especially when they were desperately in need of some help themselves!) Tarrant and Vila "persuade" the captain to take them on as partners. Of course, when could those two ever stay out of trouble for long? And what of the rest of Scorpio's crew..not to mention Sleer?

> "I told you, Tarrant!" Vila wailed. "I told you there was something valuable on that ship, else why the shielding? But did you believe me? No! You never listen to me." He stepped forward, complaining bitterly to Servalan. "He never listens to me. I could've got to that vault, but no, he was having none of that. Anything that isn't on the manifest or in the builder's specifications isn't worth bothering with. Just call him Del-by-the-damn-book-Tarrant!"

Illustrated by Theresa Buffaloe. Cover by Leah Rosenthal.

OUT OF THE NIGHT by Annita K. Smith. Only Avon and Vila seem to have survived Gauda Prime, and they soon learn that Servalan has "plans" for them. A desperate bid for freedom goes awry and, although they escape, Vila is mortally wounded. With only the option of returning to Gauda Prime left to him, Avon decides to stay with their failing ship as the air slowly runs out and Vila bleeds to death...but rescue comes from a most unexpected quarter. And, in the end, not all was as it seemed at Gauda Prime and other places, as well. Could it be, by some trick Fate, that Blake--and the others--survived Gauda Prime, after all?

> As they reached the bay, he saw the damage to the outside of Servalan's ship. It was a wonder they hadn't been killed. There were at least three direct hits, and the cargo compartment had been holed. As he started to climb aboard, Nira put a restraining hand on his arm. "The bodies of your friends are still on the ship, I'm afraid."
>
> "That's all right," he replied. "They weren't my friends. I killed one of them myself."

Illustrated by Celeste Hotaling. Cover by Laura Virgil.

The zine will be available by MediaWest 1988. Please allow 6-8 weeks from stated print date for delivery and before making inquiries. If you don't receive your zine by then, please do inquire. Issue #2 is currently open for submissions of novella length or longer.

FINAL PRICE: $10.00, including postage.

Please make all checks payable to: Ann Wortham, 1402 Allison Ave., Altamonte Springs, Florida 32701

___ If checked you have already paid a $5.00 deposit. Please remit an additional $5.00 promptly. If I do not hear from you regarding the disposition of your deposit within six weeks time, I will consider your zine at liberty and your deposit forfeit. The zine will be available for MediaWest Con pickup only if you a) make arrangements in advance by paying and telling me to ship it to the con for you, or b) you pay full-price for it at the con and forfeit your deposit. There is a very simple reason for this: I must know how many prepaid zines to ship to the con beforehand and how many "full price" zines I will have there. Your cooperation is appreciated.

♣ CLUBS ♣

Hey all you B7 club members out there—have we got a deal for you! As a thank you to all the clubs who have given their love and support to promote Blake's 7, GAMBIT is offering a Club Membership. If your club has elected to participate in this program, and you were a paid-up member of that club as of May 1, 1988, you are eligible for a special $35 3-day rate. Please indicate below which clubs you belong to. Sorry, we can't accept any club memberships without this information. This rate is good only till June 30, 1988. After that date, only $45 memberships will be accepted. Also, this rate is available only to club members themselves. If you want to bring your friends, family, significant others, resident (or visiting) aliens or anyone else who is not a club member, sorry fellas, they'll have to pay the $45 rate. By the way, if your club hasn't received the Club Membership offer, please have them contact us immediately. This oversight could be caused by one of several reasons: the club had its detector shield up so we didn't know they existed, the post awful lost the offer, or possibly your communications were directly routed through Star One during the third season. If you're not sure whether your club is participating, ask them, not us!

♠ SPADES (And Shovels, Pitchforks, Hammers . . .) ♠

GAMBIT needs a few good sentients. No good convention can function without helpers, so we're inviting you to be among the few, the brave, the masochistic to work with us to make GAMBIT the best con ever. Not only will you have great internal satisfaction . . . but there are some interesting perks to go along with that intangible. If you're interested, indicate in the space below.

♦ DIAMONDS (And Other Valuables) ♦

The Art Show and Auction at GAMBIT is starting to shape up, so all you artists out there will want to participate. For more information, show us your creativity by indicating your interest below.

There will be several kinds of dealing going on at GAMBIT, not the least being in the Dealers' Room. Pro tables cost $50; fan tables cost $25. Reserve your tables by indicating below how many you need and enclosing your check.

♥ (Thanks, From the Bottom of Our) HEARTS ♥

Since the teleport has not yet been developed, we need to find other ways to transport our guests to the con . . . which brings us to the subject of money. GAMBIT is establishing a fund to help bring our guests to the party. All members contributing $50 or more will be invited to a special Las Vegas Night with the guests. There will be games to play, chances to take and prizes to win—and your chips are on us! In addition, each contributor will be eligible for special raffles.

At this point you might be thinking that you haven't got $50 to spare for the guest fund, but every dollar helps. We'd like to involve everyone, so we've added a second level of contributors just for fans like you. Although you won't be able to attend the party, we have bonuses for the under-$50 contributors. For each $10 you contribute, you'll get a Dealer Dollar, redeemable at the con table and other dealer tables who have graciously agreed to accept them. In addition, for each $5 you contribute, your name will be put into a raffle (for example, if you contribute $30, you will have your name in six times!). The prizes in this raffle, which is separate from the regular contributors' raffle, will be pretty special and will include original works of art from some of the top fan artists as well as some surprises.

So, for a few credits more you can help us make GAMBIT the kind of convention that we'd all like to attend. We need you—if you can help, indicate your contribution in the space provided below and receive our thanks from the bottom of our ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥ ♥.

Check as many as apply. Please be sure to enclose a separate SASE for each item where requested.

♣ I'm eligible to join at the special club rate and belong to the following clubs: _____

_____

♠ I'm trustworthy, eager, and don't mind missing some of the con. Count me in as a helper. Enclosed is my business-sized SASE (25¢ postage) for more information.

---DOCTOR WHO NEWS----------

---May 1, 1988----------

Written by Jim Lyon and Joe Siegler / (C) 1988 by same
(75465,507) (71540,306)

This is not intended to infringe upon the rights of the BBC or other said licensees of Doctor Who. From CompuServe's SF/F Forum.

JOHN NATHAN-TURNER GONE AT LAST!

John Nathan-Turner, the longest producer in Doctor Who's 25 year history, has finally resigned. According to the BBC, the new Head of Drama, Mark Shivas (who replaced Jonathan Powell, who in turn replaced Michael Grade as BBC Controller), accepted the resignation as a result of pressures from the fans, most notably Operation WHO, an effort put forth by "Doctor Who Bulletin" and "big fans" Jeremy Bentham and Ian Levene.

The BBC says that Shivas will be appointing the new producer before the end of the year, probably during this spring after he takes a look at the current trend of the current season, which is shaping up in all respects to be the big anniversary year fans want.

JN-T's main reason for leaving is his duty as Creative Consultant on DOCTOR WHO THE MOVIE (mentioned later in this report)

SEASON 26 CONFIRMED!

Within the same report from the BBC comes the news that the show HAS been booked in for Season 26, with Sylvester McCoy starring as the Doctor. What has not been decided is the series' producer (see last paragraph), as well as the status of current Script Editor, Andrew Cartmel. Cartmel is reportedly upset that JN-T has chosen to include so many items from the Doctor's past in this upcoming season.

TWENTY-FIFTH SEASON UPDATE

The booking for all four stories of the season is confirmed -- we can now present the Season 25 Lineup as it will appear. All of this material is CONFIRMED!

STORY ONE - SERIAL 7H
REMEMBRANCE OF THE DALEKS (4 episodes)
Written by Ben Aaronovitch
Directed by Andrew Morgan
Confirmed Guests: John Leeson (Davros), Pamela Salem (Rachel), Michael Sheard (Headmaster of Coal Hill), George Sewell (Radcliffe), Peter Halliday (Vicar), Simon Gilmore (???), John Scott Martin (Dalek)
Notes: The Daleks arrive at Coal Hill School shortly after the departure of the First Doctor and Susan. John Leeson, who played the voice of K-9 as well as several roles of the series, plays Davros in this adventure, who makes several brief appearances.

The Emperor Dalek will NOT be making an appearance, but the Dalek Brain will; it's a mind enclosed in a glass case.

The Coal Hill School was shot on location. The sets for it AND for Totter's Yard are being done EXACTLY TO SPECIFICATION as they were in "Unearthly Child," utilizing original design specs and the floor plans of "Child" designer Barry Newberry. Other location filming was done at the Thames, an English Pub and a warehouse. Filming began April 4.

STORY TWO - SERIAL 7J
THE GREATEST SHOW IN THE GALAXY (3 episodes)
Written by Stephen Wyatt
Directed by Alan Wareing
Confirmed Guest: Stratford Johns (Ringmaster)
Notes: The Doctor and Ace visit an intergalactic travelling circus. Wyatt is the only returning writer from before. Alan Wareing was the production manager on "Keeper of Traken" and other shows. Filming begins in early May.

STORY THREE - SERIAL 7K
MALOPATH (3 episodes)
Written by Graham Curry
Directed by Christopher Clough
Reported Guest: Anthony Ainley (The Master)
Notes: Not much known about this one, save that it's a studio bound story and will probably feature Tony Ainley as the Master once again, returning for the first time since "Trial" in season 23.

Part of the episode will include animated sequences of the type seen in the BRITISH version of "Time and the Rani"'s opener (the TARDIS bouncing around the galaxy, via computer graphics), with McCoy CSO'd onto it.

STORY FOUR - SERIAL 7L
NEMESIS (4 episodes)
Written by Kevin Clarke
Directed by Christopher Clough
Confirmed Guests: Nicholas Courtney (the Brigadier), Janet Fielding (Tegan)
Notes: Billeted unofficially as the Anniversary Story of the 25th Season, the show features some big returns. First of all, the Brigadier and Tegan will be with McCoy to help celebrate the Silver Anniversary, but some old enemies will be making an appearance:

The Cybermen!

Kevin Clarke is a newcomer to WHO, as are Curry and Aaronovitch. The three returns (Cybermen, Brigadier and Tegan) are CONFIRMED, as is the story itself. Reportedly, the choice for "Nemesis" was a toss-up with "Singapore Incident".

DOCTOR WHO - THE MOVIE

Most sources are saying now that John Wood (from LADYHAWKE and WARGAMES) will be taking the role of the Doctor in the movie. As stated before, John Nathan-Turner will be assuming the position of creative consultant. Caroline Munro is still said to be in the movie. A report which might be an April Fools' Joke says Michael J. Fox is also in the movie, as is Katarina Witt. A real return is said to be in the form of Jon Pertwee, which is still unconfirmed but British sources are saying so.
